“MAMA ESTER” COOMBSVILLE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The “Mama Ester” Coombsville Cabernet Sauvignon, named for Rolando’s abuela, Mama Ester, his mother’s mother. She exuded a strength and wisdom that was compelled by her warmth and compassion and was a pivotal figure in his childhood. She was his rock, always guiding him with her sage advice and Rolando is very honored to release the 2nd vintage in her name.

STARTING IN THE VINEYARD

2018 season was seamless, long and abundant. The weather was not too hot or too cold, resulting in near-perfect fruit. Early 2018 brought abundant rains followed by a relatively mild spring and summer. This created a uniformity across vineyards allowing for slow ripening resulting in elegant fruit.

TO THE CELLAR

Hand harvested in late September, then gently pressed and racked, this wine aged for 20 months in 70% new French oak barrels.

IN YOUR GLASS

A bit shy at first, it opens with intense and rich flavors of luscious dark cherries and ripe raspberries, while hints of graphite, baking spices and rose petals tantalize the palate. Dominant chewy tannins fill the mouth and extend through the long and complex finish.

ON YOUR TABLE

Experiencing a glass of this wine with a Prime Rib will surely tempt your taste buds. Add some Garlic Butter Mushrooms and Cheesy potatoes and you won’t be disappointed.
