SIN FRONTERAS RED BLEND

Sin Fronteras means “Without Borders.” In most of Rolando’s wines, he has blended in a traditional manner. However, with Sin Fronteras, he breaks that mold and can walk on the wild side so to speak. Every year the varietals are a little different. The goal is to make the best possible wine, and if there are non-traditional blends...so be it!

STARTING IN THE VINEYARD

The 2020 season stands out for reasons that go beyond the usual benchmarks. The winter was marked by warmth and dryness, and it was only towards the end of March that we saw the onset of cold weather and rainfall. The spring season was mild, leading to a splendid summer with refreshing mornings and warm days - ideal conditions for grape harvesting. However, the run-up to the harvest was disturbed by wildfires, which fortunately didn’t impact the grapes of Mi Sueño, although the production volume was reduced. Despite the challenges faced during the 2020 harvest, the perseverance and hard work of the team paid off,

TO THE CELLAR

Each varietal, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Zinfandel, and Petit Verdot is vinified separately. After 15 months, they are carefully blended. Blending trials are long and demanding but when the final blend is complete and it tastes this beautiful, it’s worth all the effort. The wine is aged a total of 20 months in 25% new French oak and 25% new America Oak.

IN YOUR GLASS

A deep ruby purple color, with beautiful aromas of fresh cherry and strawberry, white chocolate and dark chocolate. The initial taste is like 4th of July fireworks on your pallet, with lively dark & red cherries, watermelon, and hints vanilla. It’s complex with elegant silky tannins, and a luscious one of kind mouthfeel that recognizes no borders.

ON YOUR TABLE

Indulge in a savory symphony of flavors with a rich and hearty penne pasta and beef bolognese and it will leave you craving for more.
